Types of Legislation

A bill is the form of legislation used to propose laws. In order to become law it must be passed by both houses of the Legislature and signed by the Governor. A bill including an emergency clauses becomes effective as soon as the Governor signs it. Others take effect 90 days after the close of the legislative session or at the start of the following fiscal or calendar year.

A resolution is a formal declaration of the Legislature concerning some subject that it either cannot or does not wish to control by law. A memorial is an expression of legislative desire that is usually addressed to another governmental body.
