10. Don't be scared of the Round House – it’s your building.

9. Understand what it takes for a bill to become law.

7. E-mail is a great way to communicate with most legislators - but know legislator's preference.

6. A legislator's constituents are generally the best advocates.

5. Be courteous and remember your bill is one of thousands.

4. Bills usually take more than one to legislative session to pass.

3. A great place to meet legislators is on the chamber floor before or after session.

2. Speak up at committee meetings.

1. Count your votes and be targeted.